

It is unlikely that this will be the case. More convenient parking will be available for hikers at other locations along the trail, including at the trail's Visitor Center hub at Dutchess Manor. HHFT will not promote the use of any parking facilities other than those we manage, and we will actively communicate how limited public parking is in Cold Spring.