

The Fjord Trail is a large, complex, yet focused effort. The independently-funded subsidiary is designed to see the project through construction and then operate and maintain the park in perpetuity. Chris Davis is the first Board Chair for this new organization.