

No. The state anticipates any future allocations will be through the competitive CFA grant cycle. HHFT is responsible for ensuring it has enough funding for a given phase before it moves to construction and the state, per the cooperative agreement, will be able to review and ensure that to its satisfaction before HHFT is allowed to proceed.