

Hudson Highlands Fjord Trail

The Fjord Trail is a safety and access solution to an already heavily visited parkland corridor. Agreed, the area is geographically constrained, which is the chief challenge that HHFT seeks to solve. Without a comprehensive plan to manage existing and future visitation, improve safe and welcoming access, and restore areas of this highly disturbed landscape, the problems that exist today will only get worse.