

The provisions of the existing cooperative agreements between OPRHP and HHFT, Inc. are available to review on our website's Governance page. Even where provisions exist, some will not be pursued. Each element of the project is being evaluated for its ability to help manage visitation. For example, a food concession at Dutchess Manor may help draw Fjord Trail users away from Cold Spring's busy Main Street on weekends when restaurants and cafes are already busy.