

HHFT will be providing its own staffing to steward, maintain, and operate the Fjord Trail. The expected tax impact is that tax dollars which were previously used for these purposes will go further in local municipal budgets. For instance, if Dockside Park becomes a trailhead entry to the Fjord Trail, HHFT will take over its management and maintenance, meaning Village of Cold Spring maintenance staff will no longer need to maintain it, freeing them up for other maintenance work within the Village.