

Not sure why or from whom you would have heard that. Steering Committee member organizations, through the representatives they appoint to the committee, provide influential input and vital information to the planning the process. They are also responsible for bringing informational updates they receive back to the organization/entity they represent.