

All data required for inclusion in the GEIS will be included. Additionally, HHFT will share with the public the findings from our extensive visitation management data collection and analysis process when it is completed.