

This question is directed to OPRHP. They are the Lead Agency on the project's SEQRA environmental review process, which includes inventorying flora and fauna present in the project area, especially any of special concern; assessing potential risk to habitat; and outlining how to avoid and/or mitigate risks to local species. OPRHP will review and consider all potential ecological impacts.