

Hudson Highlands Fjord Trail

The traffic you refer to occurs on specific weekends, mostly during leaf peeping season. This is a challenge faced by most Hudson Valley communities. By encouraging access by train to one of the three Metro-North train stations within the project area, providing adequate organized parking north of the Village (so hikers need not venture down Main Street at all), and other visitation management techniques, HHFT can help improve current conditions.