

Hudson Highlands Fjord Trail

Dockside Park is and will continue to be impacted by sea level rise and storm events. If the trail is routed there as proposed in the updated Draft Master Plan, the trail would track along higher ground before ultimately being elevated in areas where necessary to stay above sea level rise projections.