

The Town of Philipstown and the Village of Cold Spring have had self-appointed representatives on the HHFT Steering Committee for over a decade. Additionally, HHFT has presented project updates before both the Town Board and Village Board several times, typically once a year. This provides an opportunity for questions and comments from the board members, which has included expressions of support, as well as suggestions or guidance on how to shape the project or engage with the community.