

HHFT is a privately funded nonprofit organization so the rules are different than for state or other public entities. We meet with our Steering Committee twice a year and those minutes and agendas are being made available on our website, beginning this year.