

We have our own consultants gathering traffic data, so if the state was gathering data, they were doing so for their own uses. HHFT has gathered traffic data at multiple times of year, first in 2016 and repeated various times from 2022-2023. This included peak fall season weekend counts.